“The Resurrection and the Life”

Jn. 11

So when he heard that Lazarus was sick, he stayed where he was two more days, Jn 11:6

Point 1:

God’s timeline _____ our _____.

1. Attitude corrector:

Get a _____ toward waiting.

2. Action corrector:

Patience is a _____ to _____ to _____ timeline.

And for your sakes, I’m glad I wasn’t there, for now you will really believe. Come, let’s go see him.”

Jn 11:15

Point 2:

Lazarus died, “_____”.

Takeaway:

God’s main objective _____ always _____.

Then Jesus shouted out again, and he released his spirit. At that moment the curtain in the sanctuary of the Temple was torn in two, from top to bottom. The earth shook, rocks split apart, and tombs opened. The bodies of many godly men and women who had died were raised from the dead. They left the cemetery after Jesus’ resurrection, went into the holy city of Jerusalem, and appeared to many people.

Mt 27:50-53

Point 3

Lazarus _____ future.

We tell you this directly from the Lord: We who are still living when the Lord returns will not meet him ahead of those who have died. For the Lord himself will come down from heaven with a commanding shout, with the voice of the archangel, and with the trumpet call of God. First, the believers who have died will rise from their graves. Then, together with them, we who are still alive and remain on the earth will be caught up in the clouds to meet the Lord in the air.

Then we will be with the Lord forever. 1 Th 4:15-17

But let me reveal to you a wonderful secret. We will not all die, but we will all be transformed! It will happen in a moment, in the blink of an eye, when the last trumpet is blown. For when the trumpet sounds, those who have died will be raised to live forever. And we who are living will also be transformed. For our dying bodies must be transformed into bodies that will never die; our mortal bodies must be transformed into immortal bodies. Then, when our dying bodies have been transformed into bodies that will never die, this Scripture will be fulfilled: “Death is swallowed up in victory. 1 Cor 15:51-54

Takeaway:

Your gonna _____ your _____ again.
